Hanseatic League

The Hanseatic League was a commercial and defensive confederation of merchant guilds and market towns in Northwestern and Central Europe. Growing from a few North German towns in the late 1100s, the league came to dominate Baltic maritime trade for three centuries along the coasts of Northern Europe. In a list of (in Dutch called) Hanzesteden we find many small towns in the district of Gelderland. All those cities are worth visiting.
